

If a service is public, you should easily be able to see the complete listing in the catalog. It is important to subscribe to a service. If created properly, they should require it.

Click into a service and use the “Subscribe” option for the public service. This will allow you to subscribe to the service and be identified for all interactions.

SUBSCRIBE

Adobe API Manager – Subscribe to a service

visibility

Logo

Description