

01

Once you create the new version nothing else is required. All other data can remain the same. This will allow multiple versions of services to be maintained, developed, tested or even used.

02

Having a plan for deprecation and support for older versions is important. With notifications built into the system it should be obvious when things are changing in your infrastructure.

VERSION CHANGES

Adobe API Manager – Both versions remain

